12.1 All documents provided by ESEO, of whatever nature, are exclusively intended to be used by the customer. The Customer is not permitted to publish and/or reproduce any information received from ESEO in any form whatsoever, including understanding, selling, processing, providing, distributing, and integrating into or after processing the networks unless such disclosure and/or reproduction is permitted by ESEO in written form and/or such disclosure and/or reproduction is the intention of the nature or purpose of the agreement with ESEO.

12.2 ESEO reserves the right to use the knowledge acquired for the execution of the work for other purposes, provided no confidential information of the client is brought to the attention of third parties.

12.3 The Client indemnifies ESEO against all third-party claims regarding intellectual property rights and the publication of texts, images or other data provided by or on behalf of the Customer. In this context, the parties will not receive digital images of third party networks, unless the other party has evidence to the contrary.

General terms and conditions

12.4 If ESEO claims the rights of third parties in the performance of the assignment, the customer will not have these rights, but these rights remain with ESEO or the third party.

12.5 All items delivered by ESEO under the Agreement shall remain the property of ESEO until Customer has properly fulfilled all obligations under the contracts concluded with ESEO.

12.6 Goods delivered by ESEO which are subject to the reservation of title in accordance with Article 12.5 may not be resold and may never be used as means of payment. The client is not entitled to mortgage the objects subject to retention of title or to charge them in any other way.

12.7 The customer must do everything reasonable that can be expected of him to secure the property rights of ESEO.

12.8 If third parties take possession of the goods delivered under retention of title or if they want to substantiate or assert their rights, the customer is obliged to notify ESEO immediately.

Article 13: Term of contract and termination

13.1 The contract is concluded for the period specified in the order confirmation and for an indefinite period.

13.2 Upon termination of the Campaign, Search Engine Optimization or Google Adwords Agreement, the contract must be terminated in written form/by e-mail in advance at least one month (30 days) prior to expiration of the contractual relationship. If this is not done, the contract will be extended by at least one year with the number of previously agreed months.

13.3 ESEO also has the right to terminate the contract with immediate effect if:

(a) the customer is declared bankrupt, the customer is granted a moratorium, and in the event of dissolution and liquidation of the customer, or if a prejudice or a final attachment of the property and/or immovable property of the customer has been made;

(b) the customer is in default of fulfillment of its obligations under the contract.

Article 14: Fee

14.1 The fee granted by ESEO does not depend on the result of the services provided.

14.2 All prices and estimates are exclusive of VAT, unless otherwise stated.

14.3 If no fixed fee has been agreed, the fee will be calculated on the basis of the actually used hours. The fee is calculated according to the usual hourly rates of ESEO, which apply in the period in which the work is carried out, unless a different hourly rate has been agreed.

14.4 For all assignments, the costs will be charged monthly in advance. ESEO has the right to adjust its costs due to external circumstances.

Article 15: Payment

General terms and conditions

15.1 Payment must be made within fourteen (14) days of the invoice date, in a manner specified by ESEO and in the currency in which the invoice is issued.

15.2 After expiry of this term of payment of fourteen (14) days after the invoice date, the customer shall be in default without further reminder or notice of default; The customer is from the time of default until the date of full payment on the amount due at an interest rate of 4% per month, unless the statutory interest is higher, in which case the statutory interest applies.

15.3 Upon conclusion of the contract, ESEO is entitled to demand a deposit from the customer. The deposit and its amount are mentioned in the offer and/or in the contract. ESEO is entitled, after informing the customer, to adjust the deposit during the term of the contract, if

(a) the terms of payment by the customer is exceeded.

(b) an increase in the budget occurs.

The deposit will be deducted at the end of the contract with the last invoice to be paid by the customer. No VAT is payable on the deposit.

15.4 If the customer does not meet the agreed deposit mentioned in article 15.3, then ESEO is entitled to immediately withdraw the offer or proposal, whereby the customer is obliged to refund the expired costs and subscription fees for the contract to ESEO within a maximum time of six (6) months.

15.5 If the Client has gone bankrupt and/or in the event of liquidation of the Client and/or if an anticipation or seizure of the client's movable and/or immovable property has been imposed, the Customer shall fully grant ESEO the sums owed and a payment is immediate without any request from ESEO or notice of default.

15.6 Payments by the customer always serve first to settle all owed interest and costs and then to the longest due claims, even if the client indicates that the payment refers to a later invoice.

15.7 The customer is not allowed to invoke any kind of set-off. If the customer considers that he can assert claims in relation to the agreement with ESEO, he will not release him from his obligation to pay in the agreed manner and he will not be entitled to suspend his payment obligation.

Article 16: Collection costs

16.1 All judicial and extrajudicial costs, including the costs of legal assistance in connection with the recovery of sums owed, shall be borne by the customer.

17.2 The lodging of a complaint is without prejudice to the other obligations of the customer.

Article 18: Liability

18.1 Insofar as ESEO is liable, this liability is limited to the amount which the insurer foresees.

18.2 ESEO is not responsible and can not be held liable, directly or indirectly, for any damage or loss. Especially if a website is taken offline or receives a penalty from Google. ESEO can not guarantee that Search Engine Optimization will be successful and can not be held liable for it.

18.3 ESEO assumes that the information provided by the customer is lawful and assumes no liability for the opposite.

18.4 Parties mutually exclude liability for damages or delays caused by errors in the electronic services of ESEO and third parties such as providers, network operators or other telecommunication networks. This also applies if this has only led to a delay in the execution of the order.

18.5 Should ESEO at any time assume liability for damages incurred by the Customer as a result of a defect attributable to the performance of the obligations under the ESEO Agreement, such liability shall in any event be limited to the invoice value of that particular part of the contract to which the Supplier is liable, with the maximum amount specified in Article 18.1.

18.6 Damages for which ESEO is liable on the basis of the preceding paragraph shall be indemnifiable only if the Customer has notified ESEO within fourteen (14) days of their occurrence, unless the Customer reasonably states in written form that such damage is not notifiable within a reasonable time of fourteen (14) days.

18.7 The Customer indemnifies ESEO from the liability of third parties for damages of any kind arising from or in connection with the performance of the contract.

Article 19: Force Majeure

19.1 ESEO is not liable in case of force majeure. Force majeure means in these Terms and Conditions, in addition to what is understood in law and case law, all external causes that were foreseen or not foreseen and beyond which ESEO has no control over, or ESEO being unable to do its part to comply with obligations. Force majeure shall in any case include: strikes, excessive absenteeism of staff, a (temporary) staff shortage, fire, business and technical disturbances within the office or external parties called by ESEO, not sufficient information or provision of information at ESEO's discretion Data or the lack of cooperation of the customer.

General terms and conditions

19.3 If ESEO can partially fulfill its obligations in the event of force majeure, it is entitled to charge separately for the part already executed or executable, and the customer is obliged to pay this invoice as if it were a separate agreement.

Article 20: Special provisions for search engine marketing (SEM)

20.1 ESEO reserves the following rights with regard to the product search engine marketing (SEM): ESEO will endeavor to perform the order in the best possible way.

In this respect, the Search Engine Optimization (SEO) product strives for a good qualitative indication or positioning in the most commonly used Dutch (or otherwise agreed) search engines. ESEO has a best effort commitment for the absolute score and if possible, a top 50 position is sought. ESEO reserves the right to deviate from this in cases of difficulty to position words, spam from third parties, non-indexing by the search engine (s), rejection or non-indexing of the URL by the search engine due to technical aspects or specifications of the website or technical imperfections or the Failure to comply with ESEO's advice to the customer. The (statistical) data provided by or on behalf of ESEO (Indications) are indicative only, unless expressly stated otherwise. From this data, the customer can not derive any rights. For Search Engine Optimization (SEO) and Advertising Services, there is therefore a best-work commitment and not a performance obligation.

20.2 ESEO is not liable in accordance with Article 18 for any errors or damages resulting from work by third parties, with particular reference to Google and other search engines.

Article 21: Links

21.1 Links created on the customer's website remain the property of ESEO at all times.

21.2 Once the contract has been terminated, the customer must continue to pay at least 50% of the monthly amount as maintenance to maintain the links.

21.3 As soon as the customer no longer pays for this maintenance, the links will be removed by ESEO.

21.4 The permanent placement of links means a period of at least 1 year.

Article 22: Final provisions

22.1 Neither party shall be entitled to transfer the rights and obligations under this Agreement without the written consent of the other party.

22.2 ESEO has the right to unilaterally amend these terms and conditions. Changes also apply to already concluded agreements. Changes will be communicated to the customer in written form and will come into effect on the specified date.

22.3 If a provision of the contract or the general terms and conditions prove to be invalid, this shall not affect the validity of the entire contract or the terms and conditions. In this case, ESEO has the right to substitute a provision that is not unduly made on the part of the customer as close as possible to the defect.

General terms and conditions

22.4 In the event that these Terms and Conditions and the order confirmation or the written contract contain conflicting provisions, the provisions in the order confirmation or the written agreement take precedence over these General Terms and Conditions.

22.5 All agreements between parties and obligations arising out of or in connection with them are governed exclusively by Dutch law.

22.6 Disputes are filed before the ordinary court in The Hague, unless ESEO decides otherwise.

22.7 These terms and conditions come into force on January 1st 2018.
